PSYC3030

Psychology Undergraduate Research Experience

Title of Project	Reviewing "Big Five" Personality Trait Meta-Analyses
Supervisor	Michael Platow
Supervisor Contact Details	Michael.Platow@anu.edu.au
Expressions of Interest due by	6 February, 2025
Project Background	For this course, a student will conduct a narrative literature review of "Big Five" personality trait meta-analyses with the goal of placing a valence (good/bad) structure on this literature. There may be independent data collection (depending on time and ethical approval) to confirm valence judgments. Subsequent data analyses will comprise part of the assessment.
Time and duration of project	Semester 1 2025
Pre-requisites	A Distinction or High Distinction in PSYC2009
Proposed Assessment	Minimum requirements to pass this course: - Attend and actively engage in regular weekly meetings in a prepared manner. Graded assessments: - Literature search & integrate relevant information (25%) - Final Written Report (50%) - Oral Presentation of Findings to Audience (25%)
Any additional information	Potential additional assessment if new data are collected
Places Available	1